

Volunteer to serve as a 2021 ASCM Scholar Coordinator

Applications accepted March 1, 2021 through May 2, 2021

*The Scholar Coordinator position is intended for professionals working in the supply chain industry. Interested students may apply to be a scholar here.

Scholar Coordinator Volunteers are crucial to the success of the annual Scholars Education Program. The program now includes a series of professional development and networking sessions held virtually from August through April. Coordinators are not required, but welcome, to attend each session.

Scholar Coordinators will aid in planning scholar sessions, keeping students engaged in the online student community, and moderating/hosting select virtual events.

The 2021 program has opportunity for 2 Coordinator Volunteers.

Program Objectives:

- Provide learning experiences for students outside of the classroom
- Develop advocates for ASCM and the ASCM Scholar Education Program who share their experiences with others
- Enhance the development of the future leaders of ASCM
- Begin building professional network

Benefits:

- Complimentary access to the virtual programming at the ASCM CONNECT Annual Conference
- Connect with supply chain students from across the globe
- The opportunity to “give back” to your supply chain community

Requirements:

To become a coordinator, applicants must meet the following requirements:

- Current ASCM Member
- Apply by the May 2, 2021 deadline
- Provide 2 Letters of Recommendation
- Be available to review scholar applications the first two weeks of June

*Please note, due to the ongoing Covid-19 pandemic, there are no in-person events currently planned for this program in 2021.
